NOTICE OF NON-RESPONSE

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal – Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

Dear Sir,

I, Robert-Larry: Marshall, do declare the following to be true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

This is a legal notice. Please read it carefully as it means what it says. If you fail to comply with this notice, then you will be deemed to be in agreement to my fee schedule outlined below. Do not ignore it.

I wish to deal with this matter in honor. This is a Notice of Non-Response informing you that you are in dishonor. This notice is in reference to a Right to Travel, Determination Request sent via recorded delivery to you, dated March 15th 2016, regarding a potential liability for any false arrest, illegal towing, court cost; related to the operation of my noncommercial not for hire automobile.

You were requested to send written determination so as to validate or refute my claims and have failed to do so. To date you have failed to respond or have ignored the contents of that notice which has left me with the assumption that my claims are right and exact and you do not refute any of the claims I have made.

I wish however to offer you another opportunity to send a written determination validating or refuting any of the claims listed below or as stated in the previous notice to myself and to the notary listed above within (10) ten business days:

1. As I recreationally travel, in a noncommercial capacity, as in having no transportation of cargo or passengers for a fee. I am exempt from the provisions listed in Chapter 3 of the State of New Jersey Motor Vehicle code section 39 which states (-Certain vehicles excepted from chapter Automobile fire engines and such self-propelling vehicles as are used neither for the conveyance of persons for hire, pleasure or business, nor for the transportation of freights, such as steam road rollers and traction engines are excepted from the provisions of this chapter.)

2. As I recreationally travel, in a noncommercial capacity, as in having no transportation of cargo or passengers for a fee. I am NOT REQUIRED to own/posses/purchase
    a. a driver's license
    b. Motor vehicle registration

3. As I recreationally travel, in a noncommercial capacity, as in having no transportation of cargo or passengers for a fee. I am compliant with section 39:3-42 which states (Compliance with chapter sufficient
    No owner, purchaser or driver of a motor vehicle who has complied with this chapter shall be required to obtain any other license or permit to use or operate the vehicle, be excluded or prohibited from or limited in the free use thereof or be required to comply with other provisions or conditions as to the use of the motor vehicle, except as provided in this subtitle and as otherwise provided by law).

In the previous notice sent to you I stated:

"If any part of this question is unclear please mail me a specific statement of what is believed to be ambiguous and I will reply immediately."

"I demand to be left alone as I travel unencumbered, free from harassment and threat of enforcement of codes in which I am exempt"

Your failure to respond to this notice dated Saturday May 7th 2016 Validating or refuting my claims within (10) ten business days, I will receive it as an admission that my belief is correct and I will not be harassed, by your people (agents/officers) as I do my traveling and In the event that I am harassed or encumbered, you and the agents/officers exercising the action will be deemed personally liable to my fee schedule.
