Using the analogy of a fence when describing or referencing our relationship, consider this:

The fence(our relationship) when installed was strong and beautiful, over the years it has weathered many storms, heavy winds, rain, snow, sleet an occasional car crash; but still remained standing and somewhat intact, instead of making the major or minor (by perspective) repairs, the fence was only painted or covered with signage to mask the appearance. Today after assessment and evaluation, we need to decide if the fence needs to be removed, replaced, or reinforced.

In the spirit of fairness and full disclosure, you absolutely must know my position(s) so you then will be able to make a fully advised decision as to which direction you will choose to go. As you already are aware I require ALL OF YOU, not a great portion. If ALL is unavailable this will continue to pose an issue in the immediate future or down the line. There cannot be obstructions, AT ALL. From intimacy, to spirituality, communicatively, finances to sex, if there is no down time for meals, snacks or reality tv there shall be no down time for SEX, COMMUNICATION, BUDGET/ FINANCES !!!! No Exceptions.

For a very long time until most recently, I Loved you more than I loved myself, I now Love myself much much, more than I love anybody, and I don't see myself ever being able to reverse this. Notice I did not say never... Allegedly time heals; there are deep deep wounds so we'll see.

Here is what can be considered a full and complete list:

1] TRUST, TRUST, TRUST, TRUST, TRUST This pretty much goes without saying, If there is no Trust, there is very little worth discussing... Maybe it's just me(?)

1a] ALL PASSWORDS, PASSCODES, PIN #'S, LOG IN USER &? PASSWORD INFO- EMAIL, ALL SOCIAL MEDIA, ALL! NEEDS TO BE PROVIDED AND FORTHCOMING... NO SURPRISES OR OMITTIONS.
2a] MORE, ABSOLUTELY NEEDS TO BE DONE TO REASSURE EACH OTHER... WITH NO REDICULE OR MINIMIZING THE NEED THEREOF

2] RESPECT – It's first and fore-most
2a] In my presence
In my absence don't talk crazy to or about me and don't let ANYONE,
Anyone; feel that they can either.
2b] Protect me, let it be known that we're together, no one should be hitting on me thinking I'm alone.

3] COMMUNICATION (as a whole) MUST IMPROVE – You have a phone just like I do, you can use it As well. For a very long time there was nothing you didn't know about me, that has morphed and I dare to ask is there anything you know about me!?!?
3a] I've arrived safely, I'm going to lunch, I have a free moment to talk, I just want to hear your voice, I'm on my way home, etc. etc. etc. We have gotten like the rest of the world and have become Less interpersonal and rely on a text or email to deliver a message, this in my humble opinion is a Successful hindrance to personal communication, it's a short cut and artificial and impersonal.

It creates an emotional void.

3b] Uncertainty creates opportunity to let negative and or positivity to show up, in the case of Computer, cell phone passwords it has a huge negative impact.

3c] Verbal, emotional and general display of affection is at the lowest it's ever been.

3d] There were periods in time we finished each other's thoughts and sentences, we desired a Particular meal and we walked into the home to it being prepared or purchased

3e] it was understood and pretty much agreed, we do not and should not go out with anyone whom Is not married, I'm certain this concept takes on a different perspective for you.

3f] Majority of the time we're in separate rooms and know nothing about what the other is doing. This needs to stop.

3g] I don't know every step you take just don't leave me in the dark.

3h] don't make any decisions about our family, family business, relationship, living arrangements etc. Without me! There will never be another decision about my life that doesn't have my input!

3i] I don't need to be up under you every day, I will definitely need my "me" time.

3j] I would however love to spend more time with you... traveling partying, date night etc. There will Be times that I will go out without you. Everyone I go out with will not be married. Sometimes Well invite spouses/significant others, sometimes not.

3k] I don't need the password to everything you have nor do I wish to have. If I want to know or see Something I'll ask give me the same respect!

4] BUDGET/FINANCES (as a whole) MUST IMPROVE- Perhaps a bit of exaggeration on my part, but This household like the relationship is in shambles.

4a] By virtue of where we stand today as opposed to where we were just 5 years ago, this must be Revisited and re-evaluated as to if the goals are still "our" goals or will we continue to execute Separate goals.

4b] Shopping habits, dietary needs, cleaning supplies, misc. household purchases needs to be Addressed

4c] there was a time I brought 7 sodas, 7 chips, 7 straws home, that declined to 2 Haagen Daz ice Creams, 2 bags of chips, 2 candy bars, to now a lil something for Cydne & a lil something for Myself...smh

5] SEX (as a whole) MUST IMPROVE – This cosmic, metaphysical biological magic must not be Played with or taken for granted particularly in a REAL Marriage.

5a] you already clearly know my solid, unwavering stance on ANAL SEX!

5b] the frequency and successful completion of ORAL SEX is critical!! Dozens upon dozens of Instructions, diagrams, tutorials, videos etc. are at your disposal via that powerful tool you carry Around with you or on the various mediums available in-house. So there is very little to no Excuse.

. 5c] Foreplay MUST IMPROVE- Nipple fondling, masturbation, role play, toys, change of scenery, Costumes, fantasy etc. CREATIVITY AND OUTSIDE THE BOX THINKING IS CRITICAL.

5d] although regular sex is desired, it is clearly not reasonable. Prior, in an effort to improve on our Sexual encounters I then offered Quality over Quantity, today I feel quality might have to be Quantity, because to your admission there should not be scales but there has to be something in Place to prevent the other from getting bored or uninterested. Who knows, maybe the "hot rag" Could be a silent indicator as a healthy measuring stick. I'm just about out of suggestions.

5e] my stance on anal remains the same, hopefully we're on the same page. I need the romance & Passion to return, there was a time when we could bring each other to climax effortlessly, now It's a chore. No one wants to be graded... It's a turn off. Sex shouldn't be a job but a pleasure. Intimacy should lead to more love making and less fuck sessions.

This by far will be one of the toughest challenges we have faced, thus far.

As I write this letter, I cannot help but to get a bad case of Deja vu. This eerily reminds me of several prior posts and letters dating back years.

I would urge us both to consider the strategies we employ going forward, executing them so they don't appear repetitive or a waste, there is not enough time in a day, and never enough time in a relationship to make up or resuscitate precious lost seconds, minutes, hours days, weeks, months..

As I asked recently, please forward me a complete list of demands, concerns, wishes your stance, your position of which I too can have full disclosure. Hopefully, our last conversation proves to be fruitful and the catalyst for change and sustained growth and improvement, or cornerstone to what has been a historic relationship that we will find a way to end as gracefully and dignified as it began.
